C.6.4 Contractor Representative On-Site

At no additional cost to the Government and by mutual agreement of the Contracting Officer, the contractor, and the site, a contractor representative can be placed on-site. The contractor representative will report to the contractor's supervisor. The site Traffic Manager will answer any questions about the freight shipments.

The representative can perform the following duties:

1. Review contract shipments on site to obtain information on shipments as they are occurring, including, but not limited to, dimensions, weight and cube.
2. Serve as the liaison between the contractor operations center and the depot, providing relevant shipment information to the operations center as needed.
3. Assess existing on-site capacity, looking at the existing shipping requirements, and ordering additional capacity and specialized equipment, as needed.
4. Expedite mission critical shipments, when needed.

The representative WILL NOT perform the following functions:

1. Produce any government documentation required for shipment movement including Bill of Lading or shipping labels.
2. Package government shipments.
3. Operate government equipment
4. Perform any function that would traditionally be performed by depot personnel.
